

Write About Your Weekend

Writing Lesson, Examples & Practice Questions

How to Write About Your Weekend in English

In this lesson, you will learn how to write a short message about your weekend. This is a very common writing task in everyday life. You might send a short message to a friend, write a note, or fill in a class diary. You will practise writing simple sentences about what you did and how you felt.

Real-life examples of this kind of writing include:

- A short text message to a friend: "Hi! I had a great weekend. I went to the park."
- A note in your class diary or journal
- A simple postcard or informal message

Essential Writing Rules and Sentence Structure

Rule 1: Word Order — Subject + Verb + Object

In English, sentences follow a clear order. Always start with the Subject (who), then the Verb (action), then the Object (what) or extra information (where, when).

Subject	Verb	Object / Extra Information
I	watched	a film.
We	went	to the park.
My sister	cooked	lunch.
I	stayed	at home on Sunday.

Rule 2: Capitalisation Rules

Always use a capital letter for:

- The word I — always: I went to the shops.
- The first word of every sentence: We had a lovely weekend.
- Names of people: Maria, Tom, Ahmed
- Days of the week: Saturday, Sunday
- Names of places: London, the River Thames

Rule 3: Basic Punctuation

- End every sentence with a full stop (.)
- Use a comma (,) to separate items in a list: I ate pizza, pasta, and salad.
- Use a question mark (?) at the end of a question: How was your weekend?
- Use an exclamation mark (!) to show excitement: It was so fun!

Rule 4: Use Past Simple Verbs for Weekend Activities

When you write about your weekend, use the past simple tense. This tells the reader the action is finished.

Present (now)	Past Simple (weekend)
I watch	I watched
I go	I went
I eat	I ate
I see	I saw
I stay	I stayed
I play	I played
I visit	I visited
I meet	I met

Useful Linking Words (Connectors)

Linking words connect your sentences and make your writing flow naturally. Use these four basic connectors at A1 level.

Connector	Function / Use	Example Sentence
and	Adds more information (joining two positive ideas)	I went to the park and I played football.
but	Shows a contrast or surprise	The weather was cold but it was fun.
because	Gives a reason	I stayed at home because it was raining.
so	Shows a result	I was tired, so I went to bed early.

— Model Text —

Hi Emma,

How are you? I had a great weekend! On Saturday, I went to the market with my mum. We bought some fruit and vegetables. In the afternoon, I watched a film at home. It was very funny!

On Sunday, I visited my grandparents. My grandmother cooked a delicious lunch. I was tired, so I went to bed early on Sunday night.

How was your weekend? Write soon!

Love,
Sofia

Common Writing Mistakes to Avoid

Mistake 1: Forgetting to capitalise the word "I"

✗ on saturday, i went to the park.

✓ On Saturday, I went to the park. — Always write I as a capital letter. Also capitalise days of the week and the first word of the sentence.

Mistake 2: Forgetting a full stop at the end of a sentence

✗ I watched a film it was very funny

✓ I watched a film. It was very funny. — Every sentence must end with a full stop. Do not join two sentences without a connector or punctuation.

Mistake 3: Wrong word order

✗ Went I to the market on Saturday.

✓ I went to the market on Saturday. — Always start with the subject (I / We / My friend), then the verb.

Mistake 4: Using present tense instead of past tense

✗ On Sunday, I go to my grandparents' house.

✓ On Sunday, I went to my grandparents' house. — When you write about your weekend, the events are finished. Use the past simple tense.

Mistake 5: Writing the greeting without a comma

✗ Hi Emma

✓ Hi Emma, — Always put a comma after the name in a greeting.

Mistake 6: Starting a sentence with a small letter after a full stop

✗ I went to the park. it was sunny.

✓ I went to the park. It was sunny. — Always use a capital letter at the start of a new sentence.

Mistake 7: Using "and" too many times in one sentence

✗ I went to the park and I played football and I ate ice cream and it was fun.

✓ I went to the park and I played football. I ate ice cream. It was fun! — Use a full stop to end a sentence. Do not use too many and connectors in one sentence.

Writing Checklist and Practice Task

Before You Submit: Use This Checklist

Read your writing and tick each box:

- ✓ Did I write a greeting? (e.g. Hi [Name],)
- ✓ Did I capitalise the word I every time?
- ✓ Did I capitalise Saturday and Sunday?
- ✓ Did I capitalise the first word of every sentence?
- ✓ Did I use a full stop at the end of every sentence?
- ✓ Did I use past simple verbs? (e.g. went, watched, ate, visited)
- ✓ Did I use a linking word? (and, but, because, or so)

-  Did I write about both Saturday and Sunday?
-  Did I write a closing sentence? (e.g. Write soon!)
-  Did I write my name at the end?

Your Practice Writing Task

Write a short message to your friend about your weekend. Use the model text and key phrases to help you.

Follow these steps:

Answer Key & Explanations

Write About Your Weekend | A1

Part 1: Multiple Choice

1. B Correct Answer: I played football on Saturday.
✓ Explanation: In English, the correct word order is Subject + Verb + Object + Time. The sentence starts with I (the subject), then played (the verb), then football (the object), then on Saturday (the time). I played football on Saturday.
2. B Correct Answer: On Sunday, I watched a movie.
✓ Explanation: Three capital letter rules apply here. On starts the sentence, so it is capitalised. Sunday is a day of the week and always needs a capital letter. I (the pronoun for yourself) is always written as a capital letter in English.
3. C Correct Answer: so
✓ Explanation: We use so to show a result. Being tired is the reason, and going to bed early is the result. I was tired, so I went to bed early. The word because would need the sentences in a different order.
4. C Correct Answer: I went to the park on Saturday.
✓ Explanation: A statement (a sentence that gives information) must end with a full stop (.). A question mark (?) is only used at the end of a question. A comma (,) does not end a sentence.
5. B Correct Answer: I cooked lunch and I watched TV.
✓ Explanation: We use and to join two complete ideas. Both verbs must be in the same tense. Here, both are in the past tense: cooked and watched. The word and goes in the middle, not at the start.
6. C Correct Answer: my family went to the beach.
✓ Explanation: Every sentence must begin with a capital letter. The word my starts this sentence, so it must be written as My. This is a very common writing mistake at A1 level.
7. A Correct Answer: I wanted to swim but the pool was closed.
✓ Explanation: We use but to show a contrast or an opposite idea. I wanted to swim is a positive idea. The pool was closed is the opposite problem. But connects them correctly in the middle of the sentence.
8. C Correct Answer: We cleaned the house on Saturday morning.
✓ Explanation: The correct order follows the pattern Subject + Verb + Object + Time. We is the subject, cleaned is the verb, the house is the object, and on Saturday morning is the time expression at the end.
9. C Correct Answer: Hi, I had a great weekend. I went to the park.
✓ Explanation: This sentence follows all the rules. Hi, starts with a capital letter and has a comma after it. I is always a capital letter. Each sentence ends with a full stop (.). Common nouns like weekend and park do NOT need capital letters.

10. A Correct Answer: I stayed home because it rained.
✓ Explanation: We use because to give a reason. The main action comes first: I stayed home. Then because introduces the reason: it rained. The word because goes in the middle of the sentence, not at the start or the end.

Part 2: Fill in the Gap

11. A Correct Answer: because
✓ Explanation: We use because to give a reason. I stayed home because I was tired explains why something happened.
12. A Correct Answer: and
✓ Explanation: We use and to add one activity to another. I played football and I watched a film joins two things together.
13. A Correct Answer: but
✓ Explanation: We use but to show a contrast or problem. I wanted to go out but it was raining shows two opposite ideas.
14. A Correct Answer: so
✓ Explanation: We use so to show a result. It was cold, so I wore my jacket — the cold weather is the reason for the result.
15. A Correct Answer: I
✓ Explanation: In English writing, the pronoun I is always written with a capital letter, especially at the start of a sentence. I helped my mum cook breakfast.
16. A Correct Answer: or ✓ Explanation: We use or to show a choice between two options. We can go to the beach or the swimming pool — choose one place.
17. A Correct Answer: Also
✓ Explanation: We use Also at the start of a sentence to add more information. I like weekends. Also, Saturday is my favourite day.
18. A Correct Answer: I
✓ Explanation: When the pronoun is part of the subject of the sentence, we use I, not me. My sister and I went shopping — both are doing the action.
19. A Correct Answer: because
✓ Explanation: We use because to explain a reason. I was happy because the weekend was fun — the fun weekend is the reason for being happy.
20. A Correct Answer: and
✓ Explanation: We use and to connect two positive facts together. We had pizza and it was delicious — both sentences give information about the same event.

Part 3: Fill in the Blank

21. Saturday Correct Answer: Saturday
 ✓ Explanation: Days of the week always start with a capital letter in English. Saturday is the first day of the weekend.
22. and Correct Answer: and ✓ Explanation: We use and to join two actions together in one sentence. I ate lunch and watched a film.
23. I Correct Answer: I
 ✓ Explanation: The pronoun I is always written with a capital letter in English, even in the middle of a sentence. My mum and I cooked dinner.
24. because Correct Answer: because ✓ Explanation: We use because to give a reason for something. I stayed inside because it was cold.
25. fun|good Correct Answer: fun / good
 ✓ Explanation: Common A1 adjectives like fun or good describe how something was. The weekend was very fun!
26. up Correct Answer: up
 ✓ Explanation: Wake up is a common phrasal verb meaning to stop sleeping. I woke up early on Sunday.
27. at Correct Answer: at ✓ Explanation: We use the preposition at to talk about a location or place. We ate dinner at home.
28. but Correct Answer: but ✓ Explanation: We use but to show a contrast between two ideas. I liked the food, but it was expensive.
29. Sunday Correct Answer: Sunday
 ✓ Explanation: Days of the week always begin with a capital letter. Sunday is the second day of the weekend.
30. so Correct Answer: so
 ✓ Explanation: We use so to show the result of an action. I studied hard, so I passed the test.

Part 4: Matrix / Match Values

31. cook: A • visit: C • relax: B • play: D Correct Matches:
- cook → to make food in the kitchen
 - visit → to go and see a person or a place
 - relax → to rest and feel calm
 - play → to do a fun activity or sport
- ✓ Explanation: These are common weekend activity verbs. For example: I cook dinner on Saturday. / We visit my grandma on Sunday. / I relax at home. / We play football in the park.

32. I went to the park: C • I watched a film: A • I was tired: B

Correct Matches:

- I went to the park → because the weather was nice.
- I watched a film → and I ate popcorn.
- I was tired → so I stayed at home.

✓ Explanation: The linking word because gives a reason, and adds information, and so shows a result. These connectors help join two ideas in simple sentences.

33. Dear Maria,: B • I had a great weekend!: C • Write back soon!: A • Love, Tom: D

Correct Matches:

- Dear Maria, → Greeting in a note or postcard
- I had a great weekend! → Opening sentence about the weekend
- Write back soon! → Closing request to a friend
- Love, Tom → Sign-off at the end of a message

✓ Explanation: These are the key parts of an informal note or postcard. A greeting like Dear Maria, starts the message, and a sign-off like Love, Tom ends it.

34. i went to the park on saturday.: B • we visited my aunt and uncle: A • my friend is called anna.:

Correct Matches:

• i went to the park on saturday. →

I went to the park on Saturday.

• we visited my aunt and uncle → We visited my aunt and uncle.

• my friend
is called anna. → My friend is called Anna.

Explanation:

In English, I is always a capital letter.

Days of the week like Saturday and names like Anna always start with a capital letter.

All sentences must end with a full stop.

35. On Saturday morning,: D • In the afternoon,: C • At night,: A • On Sunday,: B

Correct Matches:

- On Saturday morning, → I had breakfast with my family.
- In the afternoon, → we played football in the park.
- At night, → I watched TV and went to bed.
- On Sunday, → I visited my grandparents.

✓ Explanation: We use on with days (on Saturday), in with parts of the day (in the afternoon), and at with specific times or moments (at night). These time expressions help organise a weekend description.

36. the / I / to / went / beach: A • my / cooked / mum / dinner: C • football / friends / played / my: B

Correct Matches:

- the / I / to / went / beach
→ I went to the beach.
- my / cooked / mum / dinner
→ My mum cooked dinner.
- my / friends / played / football → My friends played football.

✓ Explanation: English sentences follow the order Subject + Verb + Object/Place. For example: I (subject) went (verb) to the beach (place). The subject always comes first, then the verb.

37. fun: B • tired: A • delicious: C • sunny: D

Correct Matches:

- fun → We played games. It was fun!
- tired → I walked a lot. I was very tired.
- delicious → We ate pizza. It was delicious.
- sunny → It was a sunny day, so we went outside.

✅ Explanation: These are common A1 adjectives used to describe feelings, weather, and food. Using adjectives makes your weekend writing more interesting and natural.

38. I wanted to go outside: C • I stayed in bed late: A • We made a cake: B

Correct Matches:

- I wanted to go outside → but it was raining.
- I stayed in bed late → because I was tired.
- We made a cake → and we ate it together.

✅ Explanation: But shows a contrast or surprise. Because gives a reason. And adds more information. These are the most important A1 linking words for writing simple sentences.

39. What did you do on Saturday?: D • Where did you go on Sunday?: A • Who did you see?: B • How was your weekend?: C

Correct

Matches:

• What did you do on Saturday?

→ I went shopping with my mum.

• Where did you go on Sunday? → I went to the park.

• Who did you see? → I saw my friend Ana.

• How was your weekend? →

It was great, thank you!

Explanation:

What asks about an activity,

Where asks about a place, Who asks about a person, and

How asks about feelings or quality.

Matching questions and answers correctly is an important writing skill.

40. I had a wonderful weekend: A • Did you go to the park: C • Wow, the food was so good: B

Correct Matches:

• I had a wonderful weekend → Full stop (.)

• Did you go to the park → Question mark (?)

• Wow, the food was so good → Exclamation mark (!)

✅ Explanation: A full stop (.) ends a normal statement. A question mark (?) ends a question. An exclamation mark (!) shows strong feeling or excitement. Using the correct punctuation is a key basic writing skill at A1 level.

Part 5: Sort the Values

41. Correct Answer: I stayed at home on Saturday.

✅ Explanation: In simple past sentences, the subject comes first (I), then the verb (stayed), then the place (at home), and finally the time (on Saturday). Days of the week always start with a capital letter.

42. Correct Answer: We watched a film on Sunday evening.

✅ Explanation: The sentence follows Subject + Verb + Object + Time order. We is the subject, watched is the past tense verb, a film is the object, and on Sunday evening tells us when it happened. Sunday starts with a capital letter.

43. Correct Answer: My family had lunch in a restaurant.

✅ Explanation: This sentence uses Subject + Verb + Object + Place order. My family is the subject, had is the past tense verb, lunch is the object, and in a restaurant tells us where they ate.

44. Correct Answer: I played football with my friends.

✅ Explanation: The sentence follows Subject + Verb + Object + With whom order. I is the subject, played is the past tense verb, football is the object, and with my friends gives extra information about who was there.

45. Correct Answer: On Saturday morning, I helped my mum.

✅ Explanation: When a time phrase like On Saturday morning starts the sentence, it is followed by a comma. Then the subject I and verb helped follow in normal order. Notice Saturday starts with a capital letter.

46. Correct Answer: The weather was sunny and warm.

✓ Explanation: This sentence uses Subject + Verb + Adjective order. The weather is the subject, was is the linking verb, and sunny and warm are two adjectives joined by and to describe the weather.

47. Correct Answer: I went to the park because it was nice.

✓ Explanation: This sentence has two parts joined by the linking word because. The first part (I went to the park) gives the action, and the second part (it was nice) gives the reason. Because connects a cause and an effect.

48. Correct Answer: My dad cooked dinner for us on Friday.

✓ Explanation: The sentence follows Subject + Verb + Object + For whom + Time order. My dad is the subject, cooked is the verb, dinner is the object, for us tells us who benefited, and on Friday gives the time.

49. Correct Answer: I was tired, so I went to bed early.

✓ Explanation: This sentence uses the linking word so to show a result. A comma is placed before so. The first part (I was tired) is the cause, and the second part (I went to bed early) is the result.

50. Correct Answer: It was a great weekend with my family!

✓ Explanation: This sentence follows Subject + Verb + Adjective + Noun + Prepositional phrase order. It is the subject, was is the verb, a great weekend is the noun phrase, and with my family adds detail. The exclamation mark (!) shows excitement and is attached to the last word.
